Air Intelligence Requirements.

1. The Department of the Air Force has submitted a requirement which is partially reproduced in the accompanying enclosure.
2. It is requested that you initiate appropriate action to use the enclosed listing as a continuing guide for collection and selection of information.
3. Special emphasis should be placed on Section II of the listing. The high priority given this portion of the requirement is an indication of the increased importance now attached to the collection of economic information.
4. It is further requested that you forward information on a continuing basis through the normal channels.
